

Membership and Ethical Standards

We are proud members of the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP). As part of our commitment to maintaining the highest standards of professionalism and ethical practice, we adhere to the BACP's Ethical Framework for the Counselling Professions. This guidance ensures that our clients receive safe, respectful, and confidential support always.